

JUST FOR GIRLS Market/Boutique are household items that are just too good to put out on the 'side of the road', too good to just 'give away', and items that you know you could sell if you have the venue to do it. Just For A Girl Market is a little designated room where 'mommy' can go shop for herself. It's not 'kid related' items, they are things that she'd love to purchase for herself or home. Now, as a consignor, this does NOT mean that you can 'clean out the garage' and bring 'just anything.' Guidelines will be STRICT. We are going to be VERY SELECTIVE of the items we will accept. When you are considering the items you bring to us, THINK: 'shabby chic', art deco, art nouveau, baroque, classic, modern....well, you get the picture. Plain and simple, we don't want: out-dated, junky stuff, etc.... if you wouldn't buy it, don't bring it.

Listed below is a list of items we WILL accept. We have limited space and we truly only want items we feel/know we can sell for you. Also, we don't want you to waste the time and energy bringing it to us only to have it turned away.

If you have an item you KNOW would sell, or if it is a large item that is hard to transport, and you want to be sure it is an accepted item, send an email to kellytottrade@mail.com with a picture attached and we will tell you if that item is approved. 'Be sure, not sorry.'
